

STRONG PERFORMANCE IN COMPETITION

Dear ladies and gentlemen,

It's time to compete with the best: With the INDUSTRIE 4.0 AWARD, we want to honor your success stories of industrial digitalization, automation and sustainability. Take the chance to win, the race for our award has now begun.

We've already made our mark in the competition – with renewed top rankings as “Best Management Consultants” (brand eins) and “Hidden Champions of the Consulting Market” (WGMB) in the two most renowned industry surveys in Germany.

We would like to thank all those involved for their assessments, which led to us receiving these seals of quality. We have compiled more information on this and other industry benchmarks for you in this issue of our newsletter.

Best regards,
Your team from ROI-EFESO

“BEST MANAGEMENT CONSULTANTS”

For the eleventh time in a row, we are represented in the industry report “Best Management Consultants” published by the business magazine “brand eins”. The study participants once again confirmed our top ranking in the “Mechanical and Plant Engineering” sector and see us among the best companies in the consulting industry in other economic fields.

“HIDDEN CHAMPIONS” OF CONSULTING

We are Germany's leading consultancy for “Engineering, Production & Industry 4.0”. For the fifth time in a row, the industry study “Hidden Champions of the Consulting Market 2024/25” by WGMB (Wissenschaftliche Gesellschaft für Management und Beratung) has come to this result.

QUALITY IMPROVEMENT: PREMIER LEAGUE FOR FACTORIES

With ROI-EFESO, a car manufacturer establishes a soccer-inspired competition in its global plant network. In doing so, the company playfully achieved extra points in quality as well as enhancements in the cost balance.
